

Presenting Skills Workshop

Learn the magic that gets results

The presenting skills workshop is essential for anyone who faces a business audience, whether it's a one-to-one with a new client, a meeting in the office with colleagues or a presentation at a conference or seminar.

Research shows we spend 85 per cent of our time communicating verbally and non-verbally, so it is essential to understand how to do it effectively.

This workshop blends the techniques of professional speakers with the skills of copywriters and the magical secrets of NLP experts to turn you into a super presenter.

Your training will cover:

- * Constructing an effective presentation
- * Gaining rapport with your listeners
- * Using words that get results
- * Body language, voice and image
- * Overcoming nerves
